Description

Dominion Voting Systems

Founded in Toronto, Canada in 2003, Dominion Voting is a company that has distinguished itself by pursuing excellence in customer service, and by implementing a technical culture focused on achieving the highest levels of accuracy, reliability and transparency. Dominion is Canada's first and only true enabling partner for advanced, full-service election solutions, offering a full range of integrated products, from our tried and proven paper-based optical scan platform to remote voting solutions. Dominion has grown to roughly 200 employees, consisting of a mix of election veterans that understand technology and engineering experts that understand elections. Dominion is committed to producing the highest quality, most innovative election solutions and delivering the very best in professional and support services to over 1200 customers representing jurisdictions all over the world.

IAN MACVICAR

Executive Chairman & Chief Financial Officer

SINCE JOINING DOMINION VOTING IN 2006, IAN HAS PLAYED A PIVOTAL ROLE IN SETTING THE DIRECTION FOR THE COMPANY, with a particular focus on strategic partnerships that offer access to new markets, products, services and customers in Canada, the U.S. and internationally. As part of this role, Ian develops and expands key relationships to support the growth of the business. He focuses on ensuring success in each and every one of Dominion Voting's customers, and contributes directly to the creation of innovative product and service packages so customers achieve their required voting systems needs within their respective budgets.

Ian's background includes extensive involvement in all aspects of corporate, investment and merchant banking. Ian was a founding partner of CastleHill Ventures, a Vice President of Mergers & Acquisitions with a leading global investment bank, a corporate banker with a Canadian chartered bank, and an auditor with a big five accounting firm. Ian has served on the boards and various board committees of several private and public companies both in Canada and the United States. He currently serves as Director and previously chaired the Audit and Finance Committee of Prostate Cancer Canada.

Ian is a Chartered Accountant, and graduated from Queen's University with an Honors Bachelor of Commerce. In 2006, he completed the Institute of Corporate Directors programs, and became a holder of its' ICD.D designation.
